The twenty days grace allowed by the President for the dispersion of the rebels has now expired, and already the Federal troops are beginning to occupy important points in Maryland and Virginia .-The Union men of Western Virginia are battling manfully for the right, and they will be assisted, if necessary, by Federa' troops. It is expected hat perations will be commenced at Fort Pickens immediately, and that all ports from the Chesapcake to the mouth of the Micissippi be blockaded. It is reported that Gen.
